Specifically, if this application for withdrawal is not approved, then our professional and ethical obligations as attorneys might force us to expend additional time and resources on behalf of the Applicant in monitoring the status of this application, responding to any further Office Actions, and paying all additional necessary costs. However, we would most likely receive no compensation for any of this additional effort.

A Final Office Action is currently pending with a due date of September 28, 2004, more than 30 days from the filing date of this request. The due date is extendable up until December 28, 2004.
